Preamble: R.U.N. Rastafari United Nations

The Rastafari United Nations is to be overstood as an organization, which aims to translate the power of the community into Action. The assignment is simple:
Organize & Centralize!

The Nation shall push cohesion and strength to all children of HIS IMPERIAL MAJESTY QUEDEMAWI HAILE SELASSIE in Switzerland. Each House and each tribe are welcome. We treat everyone with the same respect and expect the same from all members.

We have a self-controlling structure, and every member of the Congregation has the same rights and duties. The structure of the organization is to merely allow a frictionless and transparent procedure of planed projects. All Members are entitled to present such proposals.

Congregation:

Is the main part of the whole organisation, in which all members are a part of. Its the part where all the important decisions get made thruh Reasonings.

All the members are welcome to bring their own projects and concerns, as so called tasks.

To bring this to action, the congregation makes a Taskforce for every project.

Administration:

The Administration takes care of the address database, protocol archive and the Rastafari archive.

The Administration also takes care of accounting and official matters as well as it also keeps track of the "big picture", the Congregation and its projects, finances, members and administration.

Outernational Relations:

Maintains relationships with siblings, organizations and the broader Rastafari Nation abroad.

Public Relations:

Is contact and maintains relationships with individuals, media and organizations outside the Rastafari Nation.

Maintains social media and other info channels and takes care of the internal flow of information.

Inity Office:

Is a contact point for all who have personal or interpersonal issues and do not wish to present them in the Congregation.

Taskforces:

A Taskforce is created on a project-related and temporary basis and is put together based on the skills required.

Sprinter:

All members of the Congregation which are not assigned to an active role in a Resort or a Task, will be deployed as Sprinter wherever help is needed. Participation is always voluntary.

Elders Council:

The mission of the elders council is to watch over the values and character of the nation.
